

The grids below represent top-down views of mirror mazes containing mirrors and people. Two patrons from each maze are vampires – that is, their reflections cannot be seen in the mirrors of the maze. The number outside the maze represent the number of people seen when peering into the maze – use these to identify the vampires!

