

For each puzzle, draw a single closed loop along the grid lines using the clues given. The shapes are placeholders representing the number of surrounding lines that are part of the loop - 0 through 3. You must figure out which shape represents which number and solve the puzzle with a single loop based on those numbers.

Created by David Millar. Head to The Griddle (thegriddle.net) for more puzzles. Follow @thegriddle on Twitter for puzzle updates and requests, or subscribe to our RSS feed or e-mail updates. Fixed 2/7/2010 thanks to Jim!

