the griddle

Border Fence

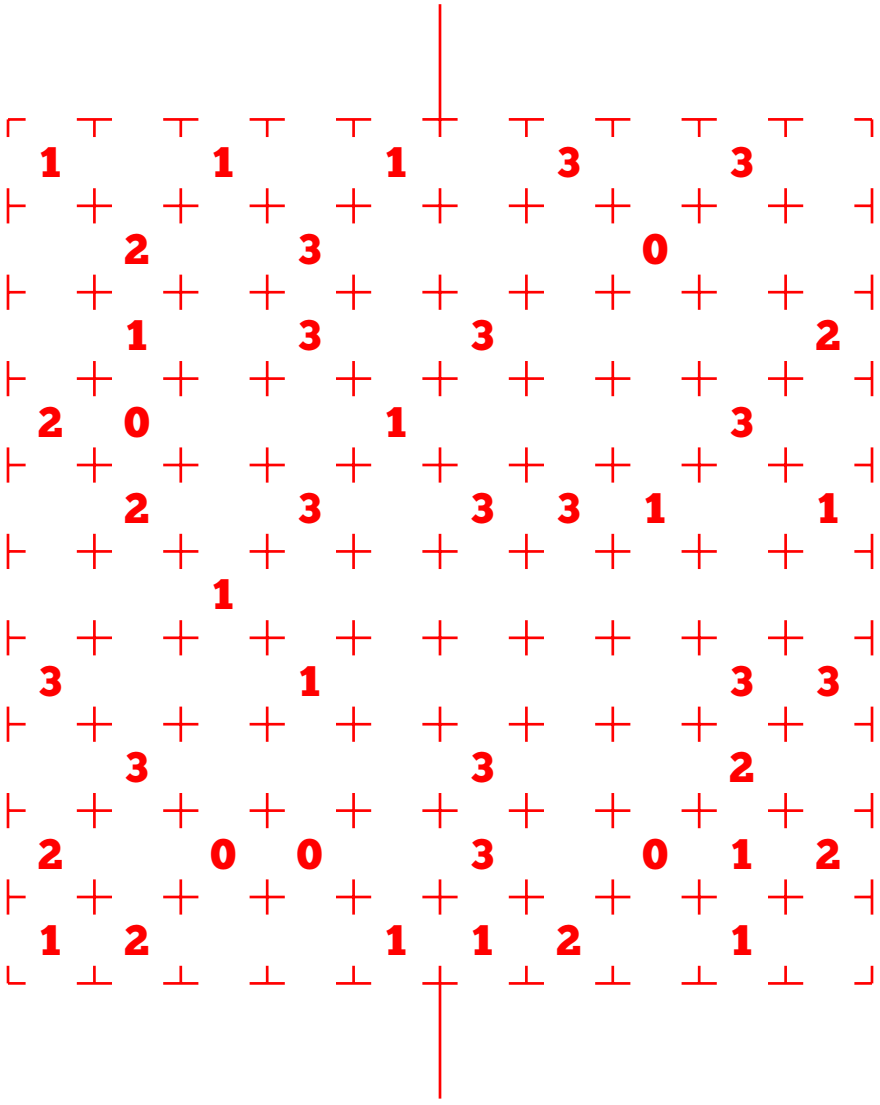
Created by David Millar
(davmillar@gmail.com)

November 17, 2010
http://thegriddle.net · http://twitter.com/thegriddle

Instructions

A fence has been put up along part of the border.

Use the clues to figure out where the fence is located. The digits in the grid show how many pieces of fence surround the cell.

The fence has no dead-ends or intersections and only goes from the top to the bottom of the grid.


It Came from Del Rio by Stephen Graham Jones is at Trapdoor Books: http://trapdoorbooks.com