

Instructions

Jamison is caring for his grandmother's five cats while she's away on holiday looking to adopt a sixth. However, cats being finicky as they are, Jamison has forgotten the cats' food preferences, favorite ways to pass time, locations in which they sleep, and how they were adopted.

Use the clues given to decipher each of the cats and their particulars and help Jamison keep things in order until his grandma returns from her trip.

- 1 MipMip was taken in as a rescue.
- 2 Mr. Jingles likes laying on the sofa.
- 3 Bowser's favorite napping spot is the bed.
- 4 Rufus' favorite snacks are not the liver treats.
- 5 The cat grandma won at bingo either enjoys naps in the garden or the garage.
- 6 Neither Rufus nor MipMip enjoy running around or climbing trees in the yard.
- 7 The cat that enjoys napping in the garden also loves eating wet cat food.
- 8 Camille, Rufus, and Bowser do not enjoy laying in boxes as an activity.
- 9 MipMip's favorite treat is either the roast chicken or plain yogurt.

- 10 Camille and Mr. Jingles both came from grandma's neighborhood. One came in through the doggy door and stayed, while the other was a neighbor cat's kitten.
- 11 The cat who was won as a bingo prize loves yogurt, whereas the cat that loves roast chicken also enjoys walking or laying on computer keyboards.
- 12 The cat that got into grandma's house via the doggie door loves wet food, but not climbing trees.
- 13 Bowser's treat of choice is of the dairy persuasion: either cheddar cheese or plain yogurt.
